What have I been doing since high school?

Does anyone still have their Senior Annual? Some of my oldest memories are the best! After H.S., I attended Robert E Lee Junior College in Baytown, completing a secretarial course, and went to work in Houston. I married Danny McMillan in 1970 and we had a son in 1974. Later we divorced, and I returned to college.

I graduated from Texas Woman's University in 1994. I have been working as a hand therapist for fourteen years and love my profession. I met my husband Steve, of ten years, on a job interview. He has two daughters that now live in Massachusetts. Steve and I live in the country with our dog, cat, and a few cows. In the last ten years, we have enjoyed ballroom dancing, scuba diving, camping, traveling, and organic gardening. Most recently, we have fun babysitting grandchildren: Macee, three years old and her sister, Emma, one and a half years old Ava, nineteen months old, who lives in Massachusetts. Homemade cookies and books are frequent presents to all the grand-children.

Often I visit Jean George, a hair stylist, for an appointment. We reminisce about friends, times, and share new information. Both of us were molded by friends, classmates, and teachers who touched us, forever.

Thanks especially to Randy Melton for his unselfish giving of his time to keep our class together. Who am I? I am Cathy Seale.
